

33RD WINTER SERIES

THE COOLEST RACE IN TOWN!™

2012 - January 14th and 28th, February 11th and 25th; March 3rd Awards Dinner

The series consists of four progressively longer (LONG AND SHORT) races. You will choose your distance when you start the race (Short races start at 10AM, Long races start at 10:15AM). The courses are gravel/paved roads, packed doubletrack, and some singletrack trails, which may or may not be snow-packed, icy, muddy, rocky, slushy, uphill and/or downhill. Altitude will vary from 6,000' to 7,500'. Temperatures will range from 50° to -25°. Races will be cancelled if extremely bad weather exists on race day. NO REFUNDS.

PLEASE, NO DOGS OR BABY JOGGERS ALLOWED ON THE COURSE. PLEASE DO NOT TRESPASS ONTO PRIVATE PROPERTY. PER PPRR RACE RULES, HEADPHONES MAY NOT BE USED DURING THE RACES.

Parking at some venues will be at a premium. Your race or series entry will include a one-day parking pass for Cheyenne Mountain State Park on Jan 14. Carpool if you can. If you have a State Parks Pass, please present it upon entry for Race #1. The courses close at 1:15pm. At that time, remaining runners will be picked up. Contact the Race Director if you want to start before the stated time. Your time will be unofficial and will not be part of award recognition. Participant must complete one full series entirely to be considered for any awards.

By signing up for the series in full by the 2nd event, or by volunteering, you will receive a Winter Series "Double-Double": a sporty raglan long-sleeve Winter Series t-shirt and two 2012 Winter Series pint glasses from which you can consume your favorite recovery drink. Both items will display the Winter Series 2012 logo so you can prove to your running buddies how cool you are.
